

Pam MacCaull – Membership Report (2019)

This year we're down one regular member to 63, and up one occasional member to 8, so we match last year's total of 71 all in. In case someone doesn't know, occasional members are the people who come out to play with us in the summer and whenever they can during the winter.

Robert Johnson, an American blues singer, said "the world is run by those who show up". So is a band. Thank you all for showing up and giving of your time and talent. Your efforts are appreciated.
